I wish to authorize the Bank to make deduction from my aforesaid depository bank account to settle debts and/or obligations I have with Krungsri Securities Public Company Limited (hereinafter referred as the Company) in accordance with the amounts shown in the invoices or computer data communication system or electronic data or the orders which the Bank received from the Company and/or the Company's representatives and/or any other person appointed or designated by the Company and/or on behalf of the Company.

I agreed to pay service charges and/or fees and/or other incur expenses concerned the deduction services to the Bank as the Bank specified. I hereby authorized the Bank to make deduction from my aforesaid deposit bank account and/or other of my deposit accounts with the Bank to pay for the service charges and/or fees and/or the said expenses.

Despite such deduction of the money from my depository bank account for settlement of the debts and/or obligations to the Company, and it later appears that amount of money of which the Company informed the Bank was inaccurate and, however, the Bank has already deducted such amount from my depository bank account pursuant to the amount appearing on the invoice which the Bank received from the Company, I agree to claim such amount from the Company directly and I hereby waive my right to claim or to sue the Bank for any compensation and/or the recovery of the money which was deducted and transfer the Company's account and/or service charges and/or fees and/or other incur expenses (if any). I further agree that the Bank may deduct my money from my depository account only if sufficient fund is available in such bank account for the deduction. Also I accept that I do not wish to have the Bank advice the deduction given such deduction entry would be known to me from records in my passbook and/or the bank statement and/or acknowledgement receipt and/or a monetary receipt of the Company.

In the event if the document evident and the account number of the aforesaid bank account has been changed by whatsoever reason, I agree that this letter of request for deduction from depository bank account shall remain effective for the bank account affected by such changes. The above mentioned request for deduction from depository bank account shall become promptly effective from the execution date of this letter and shall remain valid until a writer revocation is advised to the Bank and the Company otherwise not less than 30 days in advance.

Sincerely yours,
